

Saxon Gold 65mm

THE ORIGINAL
LONDON
BRICK FORTERRA

The Saxon Gold London Brick presents a distinctive aesthetic characterised by its warm buff-yellow hue and dimpled textural pattern which creates a bright and inviting appearance.

The buff-yellow tone harmonises beautifully with both light and dark mortar colours, offering flexibility in achieving a desired aesthetic contrast.

This adaptability offers architects and designers to tailor the visual outcome to specific design schemes, whether subtle or bold, contemporary or traditional.
